

THE ERACISM

FILM & DISCUSSION SERIES

Designed to heighten awareness and create a better understanding of the issues facing people of color or of minority ethnic backgrounds

Sunday evenings – Fort Collins Senior Center

The Two Towns of Jasper

September 21

with Dorothy Bland

Publisher, Fort Collins Coloradoan

In this documentary, two film crews, one black and one white, cover the trial of the men who dragged James Byrd to his death in Jasper, Texas.

A provocative film that must remain nameless. . .

September 28

with Christinia Eala

Founder, Winyan Maka,

Social Justice for Indigenous People

An award-winning Australian drama based on real events, the film follows three mixed-race children who are forcibly removed to boarding schools.

Maryam

October 12

with Mohammed Siddiqui

Professor Emeritus, CSU

The world of an Iranian-American teenager in 1970s suburban NJ changes drastically when Americans are taken hostage in Iran and her family becomes the target of anti-Iranian acts.

Postville: When Cultures Collide

October 19

with Ken Gordon

Chair, Human Relations Commission

City of Fort Collins

This documentary follows events and attitudes in the once-homogeneous, white, Christian town of Postville, Iowa, when it becomes a multi-cultural stew.

Sunday evenings at 6:30 p.m.

Fort Collins Senior Center

1200 Raintree, Fort Collins, CO

Admission is Free – Seating is Limited

presented by the Eracism Film Series Committee with grants from Fort Fund and the Gannett Foundation, generous donations from Foothills Unitarian Church, the Fort Collins Coloradoan, the Northern Colorado Multicultural Corporation and the Interfaith Council, and participation from the Fort Collins Public Library and Human Relations Commission of the City of Fort Collins

Further information: lbyrne@ezlink.com