

THE ERACISM

FILM & DISCUSSION SERIES

Designed to heighten awareness and create a better understanding of the issues facing people of color or of minority ethnic backgrounds

The Color of Fear

October 3 – Harmony Library*
October 7 – Old Town Library
 with Carol Miller, Executive Director
Intercultural Community Builders

The Color of Fear is a documentary about eight North American men - two African American, two Latinos, two Asian American and two Caucasian - who were gathered by director Lee Mun Wah, for a dialog about the state of race relations in America as seen through their eyes. The exchanges are sometimes dramatic, and put in plain light the pain caused by racism in North America.

Brick by Brick: A Civil Rights Story

October 10 – Harmony Library *
October 14 – Old Town Library **
 with Bridgette Johnson, Director
Black/African American Cultural Center
 CSU

Brick by Brick: A Civil Rights Story is a documentary about a contemporary American battle for civil rights. It follows three families in Yonkers, New York, in the middle of a confrontation about the politics and law of racial discrimination in housing and schools that challenges and changes their hometown.

Precious Knowledge

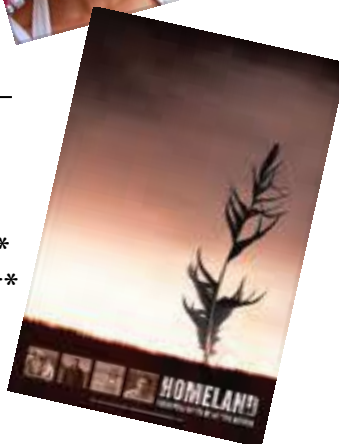

October 17 – Harmony Library*
October 21 – Old Town Library
 with Elliott Housman-Turrubiate and Mayra Granados, Students
Ethnic Studies Department
 CSU

At Tucson High School, ethnic studies programs have improved graduation rates among Latino students. But some state politicians think ethnic studies promote “racial solidarity” and anti-Americanism. When books are banned and the programs eliminated, teachers and students fight back in a modern civil rights struggle.

Homeland: Four Portraits of Native Action

October 24 – Harmony Library*
October 28 – Old Town Library
 with Scott Denning, Professor
Atmospheric Science
 CSU

From Alaska to Maine and Montana to New Mexico, Homeland profiles the struggles of Native American leaders who are taking on powerful energy companies and government agencies to protect the environment for all Americans. A moving tribute to the power of grassroots organizing, Homeland is also a call-to-action against the current dismantling of thirty years of environmental laws.
